

TORONTO City Planning

City Planning provides advice to City Council on building issues. The division undertakes complex research projects, which lead to policy development in land use, environmental sustainability, community development, urban design and transportation. City Planning reviews development applications and recommends actions on these matters to Community Councils and the Planning and Transportation Committee. The division administers the Committee of Adjustment and provides expert planning advice to four Committee panels.

Urban Design

From the largest-scale plans down to the smallest site and building details, urban designers strive at every level to create beautiful, vibrant, safe and inclusive places. Our urban designer contributes to the Development Application Review Process in terms of urban design comments, design workshops and OMB evidence and expert witness testimony. Our Section includes a heritage team that plays an important role in preserving Toronto's heritage by advising City Council on matters relating to the Ontario Heritage Act and acting as a professional resource for the community and property owners on the conservation of the City's historic resources. We engage in civic design improvements; including administering the developers percent for public art program and the design review panel. Our Section also includes City Planning's graphic support, mapping, architectural visualization and 3D modelling.
