

John Tory
Mayor

Dear New Torontonians:

I wanted to be among the first to say welcome to Toronto, one of the most multicultural urban areas in the world. We have been eagerly awaiting your arrival and are happy that you will call Toronto your new home.

Every year Toronto welcomes thousands of people like you from around the world. The diverse cultures and communities of our residents have helped create Toronto's identity as a vibrant global city. We are very proud of this diversity and see it as one of our greatest strengths.

As a new Torontonian you will have access to services and resources to help make your transition easier. Some of these key services are outlined in this Welcome Package. Take some time to familiarize yourself with what is offered, and remember that many of these services are available without charge. Make use of them, they are designed to help you.

As mayor, I am proud of how our city and country has opened our arms to welcome you as our new residents. We strongly feel that your success is our success. We wish you all the best as you build a new life here in Canada.

Sincerely,

John Tory
Mayor of Toronto
