

Changes to Solid Waste Services to the public for Victoria Day, Monday, May 22, 2017

Solid Waste Service	Status of Service
Daytime Curbside Residential Collection	Curbside collection service is not provided on any Monday; therefore the public are not affected on Victoria Day.
Night time Curbside Residential Collection	Business as usual.
Front End (Bulk) Multi-Residential Collection (generally applicable to high-rise apartment/condo/co-op buildings & some types of townhouses)	Garbage, Recycling, Organics & Durable Goods: Collection cancelled on Victoria Day Monday. Regular Monday collection will occur on Tuesday and Tuesday collection will occur on Wednesday - rest of the week remains unchanged. Changes are reflected in the Multi-Residential Collection Calendar.
Premium Organics Collection (restaurants who have applied and been approved to receive additional organics collection up to 6 days-per-week)	Business as usual.
Transfer Station Drop-off Depots (for residential drop-off of garbage, yard waste and recyclables)	All sites are closed on Monday – re-open Tuesday. Signage posted at sites.
Household Hazardous Waste (HHW) & Computer Drop-off Depots	Drop-off depot services are not provided on any Monday, therefore the public are not affected on Victoria Day.
Container Pick up Locations	Container pick up locations are not provided on any Monday, therefore the public are not affected on Victoria Day.
Litter Bin Collection and Litter pick up	Business as usual.
Litter Bin collection in Parks	Business as usual.